

AGREEMENT ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ASEAN CO-ORDINATING CENTRE FOR HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE ON DISASTER MANAGEMENT

The Governments of Brunei Darussalam, the Kingdom of Cambodia, the Republic of Indonesia, the Lao People's Democratic Republic, Malaysia, the Republic of the Union of Myanmar, the Republic of the Philippines, the Republic of Singapore, the Kingdom of Thailand and the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam, Member States of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the Parties" or singularly as "the Party");

REAFFIRMING their commitment to the aims and purposes of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) as set forth in the Bangkok Declaration of 8 August 1967, in particular, to promote regional co-operation in Southeast Asia in the spirit of equality and partnership and thereby contribute towards peace, progress and prosperity in the region;

FURTHER REAFFIRMING the commitments of the ASEAN Charter which entered into force on 15 December 2008 and the provisions of the Cha-am-Hua Hin Declaration on the Roadmap for the ASEAN Community (2009-2015) to pursue comprehensive integration of ASEAN towards the realisation of an open, dynamic and resilient ASEAN Community by 2015 as envisioned in the Declaration of ASEAN Concord II through the ASEAN Socio-Cultural Community Blueprint;

REFERRING to the commitment stipulated in the ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response (AADMER) signed on 26 July 2005 and which entered into force on 24 December 2009 to establish the ASEAN Co-ordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance on disaster management, which shall serve as an effective mechanism to achieve substantial reduction of disaster losses in lives and in the social, economic and environmental assets of the Parties and to jointly respond to disaster emergencies through concerted national efforts and intensified regional and international co-operation;

CONCERNED by the increasing frequency and scale of disasters in the ASEAN region and their damaging impacts both short-term and long-term;

FURTHER RECALLING the 40th Meeting of the ASEAN Foreign Ministers' Joint Communiqué on 30 July 2007 in Manila, the Philippines, which endorsed Indonesia as the host of the AHA Centre;

Have agreed as follows:

Article 1 Terms and Definitions

For the purposes of this Agreement:

“Assisting Entity” means a State, international organisation, and any other entity or person that offers and/or renders assistance to a Receiving Party or a Requesting Party in the event of a disaster emergency;

“Conference of the Parties” means the Conference of Parties established under Article 21 of ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response (AADMER);

“Competent Authorities” means one or more entities designated and authorised by each Party to act on its behalf in the implementation of AADMER and this Agreement;

“Disaster” means a serious disruption of the functioning of a community or a society causing widespread human, material, economic or environmental losses;

“Disaster emergency” means a situation where a Party declares that it is unable to cope with a disaster;

“Disaster management” means the range of activities, prior to, during and after the disasters, designed to maintain control over disasters and to provide a framework for helping at-risk persons and/or communities to avoid, minimise or recover from the impact of the disasters;

“Expert” means any person other than the staff members of the AHA Centre appointed to carry out specific tasks for the AHA Centre or on its behalf, and its expense for a specific period of time;

“Hazard” means a potentially damaging physical event, phenomenon and/or human activity, which may cause the loss of life or injury, property damage, social and economic disruption or environmentally degradation;

“National Focal Point” means an entity designated and authorised by each Party to receive and transmit information pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement. To facilitate the functioning of the AHA Centre, it is preferred that the National Focal Points should be the ASEAN Committee on Disaster Management (ACDM);

“Receiving Party” means a Party that accepts assistance offered by an Assisting Entity or Entities in the event of a disaster emergency; and “Requesting Party” means a Party that requests from another Party or Parties assistance in the event of a disaster emergency.

Article 2
Establishment of the ASEAN Co-ordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance

1. In accordance with Article 20.1 of the AADMER, the Parties hereby establish the ASEAN Co-ordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance on disaster management (hereinafter referred to as the "AHA Centre").
2. The AHA Centre shall have its seat in Jakarta, Indonesia, (hereinafter referred to as the "Host Country").

Article 3
Purposes of the AHA Centre

1. The purpose of the AHA Centre is to facilitate co-operation and co-ordination among the Parties, and with relevant United Nations and international organisations, in promoting regional collaboration in disaster management and emergency response.
2. The AHA Centre shall work on the basis that the Requesting Party will act first to manage and respond to disasters within its territory. In the event that the Requesting Party requires assistance to cope with such a situation, in addition to a direct request to any Assisting Entity, it may seek assistance from the AHA Centre to facilitate such request.

Article 4
Functions of the AHA Centre

In accordance with AADMER, the AHA Centre shall perform the following functions:

- (i) receive and consolidate data as analysed by and recommendations on risk level from the National Focal Points;
- (ii) on the basis of such information, disseminate to each Party, through its National Focal Point, the analysed data and risk level arising from the identified hazards;
- (iii) where appropriate, conduct analysis on possible regional-level implications;
- (iv) receive information regarding available resources for the regional standby arrangements for disaster relief and emergency response;
- (v) facilitate the establishment, maintenance and periodical review of regional standby arrangements for disaster relief and emergency response;
- (vi) facilitate periodic review of regional standard operating procedures;
- (vii) receive data on earmarked assets and capacities, which may be available for the regional standby arrangements for disaster relief and emergency response, as communicated by each Party, and their updates;
- (viii) consolidate, update and disseminate the data on such earmarked assets and capacities, and communicate with the Parties for their utilisation;
- (ix) receive information on measures taken by the Parties to mobilise equipment, facilities, materials, human and financial resources required to respond to disasters;

- (x) facilitate joint emergency response;
- (xi) where appropriate, facilitate the processing of exemptions and facilities in respect of the provision of assistance;
- (xii) where possible and appropriate, facilitate the processing of transit of personnel, equipment, facilities and materials in respect of the provisions of assistance;
- (xiii) facilitate activities for technical co-operation;
- (xiv) facilitate activities for scientific and technical research;
- (xv) receive from each Party, information on designated National Focal Points and Competent Authorities and any subsequent changes in their designations;
- (xvi) regularly and expeditiously provide to the Parties and, as necessary, to relevant international organisations, information referred to in paragraph (xv) above; and
- (xvii) carry out any other task assigned by the Conference of the Parties (COP).

2. The staff members shall perform such tasks in accordance with the terms and conditions of their appointments and any other tasks assigned by the Executive Director and/or the Heads of Divisions and/or the Governing Board.

Article 11 Obligations of the Host Country

1. The Host Country shall provide adequate premises at its own expense, operational facilities and such other facilities needed for the operations of the AHA Centre in accordance with the Host Country Agreement to be concluded between the AHA Centre and the Host Country.
2. The Host Country shall grant to the AHA Centre, Executive Director, Heads of Divisions and staff members, where appropriate, privileges and immunities as may be necessary for the performance of their functions and responsibilities in accordance with the Host Country Agreement to be concluded between the AHA Centre and the Host Country.

Article 12 Funding Arrangements

1. An AHA Centre Fund (hereinafter referred to as the "Fund") is hereby established to support the operationalisation budget of AHA Centre. The Parties shall make annual equal contributions to the Fund, which shall be remitted in a timely manner, after the COP has reached agreement by consensus as to the agreed contributions for any specific year.

2. In addition to the Fund, the AHA Centre will also be supported by the ADMER Fund established in accordance with Article 24 of AADMER.
3. The AHA Centre may, when necessary, mobilise additional resources from the international donor community which includes international organisations, regional financial institutions and partners of ASEAN.
4. The Fund is to be utilised to meet the expenses necessary to implement the activities required to fulfil the purposes of the AHA Centre, as approved by the Governing Board.
5. All funds shall be administered in accordance with the rules and procedures for the management of such funds established under Article 7.1 (viii) of this Agreement.

Article 13 Legal Personality

1. The AHA Centre shall have, in the territory of its Host Country, the legal capacity necessary to do the following:
 - (i) to enter into contracts;
 - (ii) to acquire and dispose of movable and immovable properties; and
 - (iii) to institute and defend itself in legal proceedings.
2. In the exercise of these capacities, the AHA Centre shall be represented by the Executive Director who shall comply with the relevant financial rules and procedures approved by the Governing Board.

Article 14 Amendments

Amendments to this Agreement, as proposed by any Party, shall be agreed to by the Parties by consensus. Such amendments shall enter into force in accordance with Article 16 (Final Provisions) of this Agreement.

Article 15 Settlement of Disputes

Any dispute between Parties concerning the interpretation or application of, or compliance with this Agreement shall be settled amicably by consultation or negotiation.

Article 16 Final Provisions

1. Each Party shall notify the Secretary-General of ASEAN upon completion of its internal legal procedures for entry into force of this Agreement. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the deposit of the tenth instrument of notification of the fulfilment of such internal legal procedures with the Secretary-General of ASEAN.
2. This Agreement shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of ASEAN, who shall promptly furnish a certified copy thereof to each Party.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorised by their respective Governments have signed this Agreement.
